It is time, once again, for North Dakota's premier safety and health event! The 37th Annual ND Safety & Health Conference will be held in Fargo at the Ramada Plaza & Suites, February 2, 3 and 4, 2010.

You'll experience 3 days of in-depth professional development programs by some of the leading speakers from across the nation, including keynotes Scott Geller and David Landsverk! World-renowned safety speaker, Scott Geller, Ph.D., will be kicking off the Annual Conference Tuesday, February 2, with an exciting session on behavior-based and people-based safety. Scott is an internationally recognized safety consultant and faculty member of Virginia Tech's Department of Psychology. David Landsverk will start the day Wednesday, February 3, with his motivational talk titled, "Take This Job and Love It." David draws on his 38-year career as a teacher, principal and superintendent of schools, and believes that we all have the potential to excel in whatever we choose to do.

Choose from nearly 60 educational and motivational courses, as well as hands-on demonstrations, to help you improve the safety environment at your workplace. Make new connections and share safety best practices with more than 50 exhibitors featuring new safety products and services during the conference and the Exhibitor Social Tuesday evening. Don't miss the Awards Banquet on Wednesday, where companies from across North Dakota will receive the recognition they deserve for achieving significant safety goals. And, new this year is Thursday's "Get Your Game On" lunch featuring football trivia and prizes!
